FOUND, CONCLUDED, AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. The Debtors have demonstrated good and sufficient reasons for, and the best interests of their estates, creditors, and other parties in interest will be served by, this Court granting, to the extent provided herein, the relief requested in the Motion relating to the bidding process, including approval of (1) the Bidding Procedures, (2) the Bid Protections, (3) the Assumption and Assignment Procedures, and (4) the forms of the Cure Notice (as defined below) and Sale Notice (as defined below) attached to the Motion as Exhibit C and Exhibit D, respectively.

B. Good and sufficient business reasons exist for the Court to authorize the Debtors to enter into Stalking Horse Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Order and the Bidding Procedures.

C. The Debtors have demonstrated good and sufficient reasons for, and the best interests of their estates will be served by, this Court scheduling the Sale Hearing to consider granting the other relief requested in the Motion, including approval of the Sale and the transfer of the Purchased Assets (and the assumption and assignment of the Buyer Assumed Agreements) to the Successful Bidder free and clear of all Liens, Claims and Interests, except those expressly assumed as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement, pursuant to sections 363(f) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. The Bid Protections as set forth in Section 8.3 of the Stalking Horse Agreement to be paid under the circumstances described therein to the Stalking Horse Bidder are: (1) an actual and necessary cost of preserving the value of the respective Debtors' estates within the meaning of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) commensurate to the real and substantial benefits conferred upon the Debtors' estates by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (3) reasonable and appropriate in light of the size and nature of the proposed Sale and comparable transactions, the commitments and accommodations of the Stalking Horse Bidder that have been made for the benefit of the Debtors' estates, and the efforts that have been and will be expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder.

E. The Bid Protections are the product of negotiations between the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder conducted in good faith and at arm's length, and the Stalking Horse Agreement (including the Bid Protections) is the culmination of a process undertaken by the Debtors and their professionals to negotiate a transaction with a bidder who was prepared to pay the highest or otherwise best purchase price for the Purchased Assets to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates.

F. Moreover, the Bid Protections are an essential and material inducement and express condition of the Stalking Horse Bidder's entry into, and continuing obligations under, the Stalking Horse Agreement. Unless it is assured that the Bid Protections will be available, the Stalking Horse Bidder is unwilling to remain obligated to consummate the Sale or otherwise be bound under the Stalking Horse Agreement (including the Stalking Horse Bidder's obligation to maintain its committed offer while such offer is subject to higher or otherwise better offers as contemplated by the Bidding Procedures). The Bid Protections have induced the Stalking Horse Bidder to submit a bid that will serve as a minimum or floor bid for the Purchased Assets on which the Debtors, their creditors and other bidders can rely, and which encourages and facilitates the Auction process. The Stalking Horse Bidder has thus provided a material benefit to the Debtors, their estates and creditors by increasing the likelihood that the best possible purchase price for the Purchased Assets will be realized. Accordingly, the Bid Protections are fair, reasonable and appropriate, and necessary to facilitate a competitive, value-maximizing Sale for the benefit of the Debtors' estates.

G. The Stalking Horse Bidder is not an "insider" or "affiliate" of any of the Debtors, as those terms are defined in section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as set forth in the Declaration of Mark Buschmann in Support of Debtors' Motion to Approve Bidding Procedures in Connection With the Sale of Substantially all Assets Comprising the Debtors' Pharma Business, no common identity of directors, officers or controlling stockholders exists among the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Debtors. The Stalking Horse Bidder and its counsel and advisors have acted in "good faith" within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the Stalking Horse Bidder's negotiations of the Bid Protections and the Bidding Procedures and entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement.

H. The Bidding Procedures are fair, reasonable, and appropriate and are designed to maximize the recovery from the Sale of the Purchased Assets.

I. The process for submitting Qualified Bids is fair, reasonable, and appropriate and is designed to maximize recoveries for the benefit of the Debtors' estates, creditors, and parties in interest.

J. Good and sufficient notice of the relief sought in the Motion has been provided under the circumstances, and no other or further notice is required except as set forth in the Bidding Procedures and the Assumption and Assignment Procedures. A reasonable opportunity to object or be heard regarding the relief requested in the Motion has been afforded to all parties in interest.

21. If, at any time and from time to time after the entry of this Order, the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or other Successful Bidder identify additional Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases to be assumed and assigned as Buyer Assumed Agreements in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement or Successful Bidder's Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors shall serve a supplemental Cure Notice (each, a "Supplemental Cure Notice") by facsimile, electronic transmission, hand delivery or overnight mail on the applicable non-debtor counterparty and its counsel (if known) no later than ten (10) days before the closing ("Closing") of the Sale, or, if such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is identified less than ten (10) days prior to the Closing, by the date set forth on the Supplemental Cure Notice. Each Supplemental Cure Notice shall: (a) state the date, time and place of the Sale Hearing (or later hearing, if applicable); (b) state the date by which any objection to the assumption and assignment of such Buyer Assumed Agreement must be filed and served; and (c) identify the proposed Cure Costs, if any.

22. Each Cure Costs Objection must set forth with specificity each and every asserted default in any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease and the monetary cure amount asserted by such counterparty to the extent it differs from the Cure Costs, if any, specified by the Debtors in the Cure Notice or Supplemental Cure Notice, as applicable.

23. In the event that the Debtors and the non-debtor party cannot resolve a Cure Costs Objection, disputed Cure Costs shall not be paid until the resolution of any such disputes by the Court or mutual agreement of the Debtors, with the consent of the Stalking Horse Bidder to the extent required in the Stalking Horse Agreement, and the objecting party. Cure Costs Objections may be resolved by the Court at the Sale Hearing, or at a separate hearing either before or after the Sale Hearing. Any resolution of an objection to a Cure Cost occurring after the Sale Hearing shall nevertheless remain subject to the rights, obligations and duties of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder under the Stalking Horse Agreement.

24. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that fails to timely file and serve a Cure Costs Objection shall be forever barred from asserting that Cure Costs are owed in an amount in excess of that set forth in the Cure Notice or Supplemental Cure Notice. If no Cure Costs Objection is timely filed and served by the Cure Objection Deadline with respect to a Buyer Assumed Agreement, the Cure Costs identified in the Cure Notice or Supplemental Cure Notice, as applicable, with respect to the applicable Executory Contract(s) and/or Unexpired Lease(s) shall be the only amounts necessary to be paid to cure all monetary defaults pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code under such Buyer Assumed Agreement(s), to the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder (or other Successful Bidder) ultimately decides to have the applicable Buyer Assumed Agreement(s) assumed and assigned to it. Any party failing to timely file a Cure Costs Objection shall be deemed to have consented and forever barred from objecting to the Cure Costs and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts against the Debtors, their estates or the Successful Bidder, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or any other document. To the extent a Cure Costs Objection is resolved or determined unfavorably to the applicable Debtor, such Debtor may, with the prior written consent of the Successful Bidder, seek to instead reject the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease after such determination.

25. If any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease objects to the assumption and assignment of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease for any reason (including with respect to adequate assurance of future performance) other than the amount of the proposed Cure Costs (an "Assignment Objection"), such counterparty must file and serve such Assignment Objection so as to be received by the Notice Parties by no later than ten (10) days after service of the Cure Notice or Supplemental Cure Notice, as applicable (the "Assignment Objection Deadline"). 26. If no Assignment Objection is timely filed and served by the Assignment Objection Deadline, the counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed to have consented (including deemed consent under section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code), to the assumption, assignment and sale of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the Successful Bidder if such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is elected by the Successful Bidder as a Buyer Assumed Agreement and shall be forever barred from asserting any objection with regard to such assumption, assignment and sale; provided, however, in the event that the Successful Bidder is not the Stalking Horse Bidder, the non-debtor parties to the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be assumed and assigned to such Successful Bidder shall have until 4:00 p.m. on the date that is one (1) business day prior to the Sale Hearing to object to the assumption, assignment and/or sale of their Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to such Successful Bidder; provided further, however, any such objection may relate solely to adequate assurance of future performance by such Successful Bidder pursuant to sections 365(b) and (f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

27. The Stalking Horse Bidder may add or remove any Buyer Assumed Agreement to be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder at any time prior to five (5) days prior to the Sale Hearing in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

Bidding Procedures

BIDDING PROCEDURES

Set forth below are the bidding procedures (the “Bidding Procedures”) to be used by Rising Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and the wholly-owned subsidiaries of Rising Pharmaceuticals, Inc., each as listed as “Sellers” (together, the “Sellers” and each a “Seller”) on the signature pages to that certain Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 7, 2019 (together with the schedules thereto and related documents, and as may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Stalking Horse Agreement”), by and among the Sellers, Aceto Corporation, as Parent, and Shore Suven Pharma, Inc. (the “Buyer” or “Stalking Horse Bidder”), for the proposed sale of substantially all assets (as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement, the “Purchased Assets”) comprising the Debtors’ Pharma Business and assumption of certain related liabilities, in the Sellers’ jointly administered chapter 11 cases pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the “Bankruptcy Court”), case number 19-13448 (VFP).

The Buyer has submitted a Qualified Bid (as defined below) for the Purchased Assets pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement (the “Stalking Horse Bid”).

On March 15, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order, which, among other things, authorized the Sellers to determine the highest or otherwise best offer for the Purchased Assets through the Bidding Procedures (the “Bidding Procedures Order”).

The sale transaction pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement is subject to competitive bidding as set forth herein.

A. ASSETS TO BE SOLD

The Sellers seek to complete the sale of the Purchased Assets and the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities described in the Stalking Horse Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided in the Stalking Horse Agreement or such other approved purchase agreement of the Successful Bidder (as defined below), all of each Seller’s respective right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Assets to be acquired shall be sold free and clear of all Liens, Claims and Interests (each as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement), except for Permitted Liens and Assumed Liabilities (each as defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement) as may be specified in the Stalking Horse Agreement, and with any such Liens, Claims and Interests to attach solely to the net proceeds of the sale of each applicable Purchased Asset.

A party may participate in the bidding process by submitting a Qualified Bid for any or all of the Purchased Assets.

B. THE BIDDING PROCEDURES

To ensure that the Sellers receive the maximum value for the Purchased Assets, the Stalking Horse Agreement is subject to higher or otherwise better offers at the Auction (if any) in accordance with these Bidding Procedures, and, as such, the Stalking Horse Agreement will serve as the “stalking horse” bid for the Purchased Assets.

1. Key Dates

The key dates for the process contemplated herein are as follows:⁵

2. Confidentiality

In order to participate in the bidding process, each person other than the Stalking Horse Bidder who wishes to participate in the bidding process (a “Potential Bidder”) must (to the extent not previously provided) provide an executed confidentiality agreement (to be delivered prior to the distribution of any confidential information by the Sellers to any Potential Bidder) in form and substance satisfactory to the Sellers, on terms not less favorable in the aggregate to the Sellers than the confidentiality agreement signed by the Stalking Horse Bidder, as determined by the Sellers, and without limiting the foregoing, each confidentiality agreement executed by a Potential Bidder shall contain standard non-solicitation provisions, as determined by the Sellers.

3. Due Diligence

The Sellers will afford any Potential Bidder that has executed or that will execute a confidentiality agreement in accordance with paragraph 2 above such due diligence access or additional information as the Sellers, in consultation with their advisors, deem appropriate, in their discretion and within their reasonable business judgment. The Sellers will use good faith efforts to provide to the Stalking Horse Bidder access to written information made available to any Qualified Bidder (as defined below) if not previously made available to the Stalking Horse Bidder.

The due diligence period shall end on the Bid Deadline, and none of the Sellers nor any of their representatives shall be obligated to furnish any due diligence information to any Qualified Bidder after the Bid Deadline, provided that the Sellers shall continue to provide due diligence to the Stalking Horse Bidder.

4. Provisions Governing Qualified Bids

A bid submitted will be considered a “Qualified Bid” only if the bid complies with all of the following, in which case the party submitting the bid shall be a “Qualified Bidder”; provided that, if the Debtors receive a bid prior to the Bid Deadline that is not a Qualified Bid, the Debtors may provide the bidder with the opportunity to remedy any deficiencies until one (1) day prior to the Auction:

- a. it expressly discloses whether the bid is for some or all of the Purchased Assets;
- b. it fully discloses the identity of each entity that will be bidding for or purchasing some or all of the Purchased Assets, including any equity holders in the case of a Potential Bidder which is an entity specially formed for the purpose of effectuating the contemplated transaction, or otherwise participating in connection with such bid (including any co-bidder or team bidder), and the complete terms of any such participation, including any agreements, arrangements or understandings concerning a collaborative or joint bid or any other combination concerning the proposed bid. A bid must also fully disclose any connections, relationships (business or otherwise), whether or not known, to the Sellers or agreements or understandings with the Sellers, the Stalking Horse Bidder or any other known bidders, Potential Bidder or Qualified Bidder, and/or any officer, director or equity security holder of the Sellers;
- c. it states that the Qualified Bidder offers to purchase, in cash, some or all of the Purchased Assets upon terms and conditions that the Sellers reasonably determine are at least as favorable to the Sellers as those terms and conditions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement (or pursuant to an alternative structure that the Sellers reasonably determine is no less favorable to the Sellers than the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Agreement). For the avoidance of doubt, any Qualified Bid must, either on its own or when considered together with other Qualified Bid(s), provide value in excess of the Stalking Horse Agreement plus the Break-Up Fee, Expense Reimbursement and minimum overbid requirements detailed below in Section 4(k);
- d. it provides a detailed description of any anticipated regulatory or governmental approvals necessary to consummate the bid including, but not limited to, all foreign antitrust or anti-competition approvals required;
- e. it includes a commitment to close the transactions within the timeframe contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement;

- f. it includes a binding and enforceable signed writing that the Qualified Bidder's offer is irrevocable unless and until the Sellers accept a higher or otherwise better bid and such Qualified Bidder is not selected as a Back-Up Bidder (as defined below); provided that if such Qualified Bidder is selected as the Successful Bidder, its offer shall remain irrevocable until four (4) months after the execution of the applicable Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement (as defined herein). Such writing shall guarantee performance of the Qualified Bidder by its parent entities, if any, or provide such other guarantee of performance requested by and acceptable to the Sellers;
- g. it shall be accompanied by a deposit into escrow with the Sellers of an amount in cash equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate purchase price in the Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Good Faith Deposit");
- h. it includes confirmation that all necessary internal and shareholder or similar approvals have been obtained prior to the bid;
- i. it includes a duly authorized and executed copy of an asset purchase agreement, including the purchase price for the Purchased Assets expressed in U.S. Dollars, together with all exhibits and schedules thereto, together with copies marked to show any amendments and modifications to the Stalking Horse Agreement (collectively, the "Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement") and a proposed form of order to approve the sale, together with a copy marked to show amendments and modifications to the proposed form of sale approval order attached to the motion to approve the sale of the Purchased Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder; provided, however, that such Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement shall not include any financing or diligence conditions, or any other conditions that are less favorable to the Sellers than the conditions in the Stalking Horse Agreement;
- j. it includes written evidence of (i) sufficient cash on hand to fund the purchase price or (ii) sources of immediately available funds that are not conditioned on third-party approvals or commitments, in each case, that will allow the Sellers to make a reasonable determination as to the Qualified Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transaction contemplated by the Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement. Such written evidence shall include the most current audited and the most current unaudited financial statements, or such other financial information of the Qualified Bidder as may be requested by and acceptable to the Sellers (collectively, the "Financials"), or, if the Qualified Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring some or all of the Purchased Assets, the Financials of the Qualified Bidder's equity holder(s) or other financial backer(s) that are guaranteeing the Qualified Bidder's performance; provided that if a Potential Bidder is unable to provide Financials, the Sellers may accept such other information sufficient to demonstrate to each Seller's reasonable satisfaction that such Potential Bidder has the financial wherewithal to consummate the applicable sale transaction. The Potential Bidder also must establish to the Sellers' satisfaction that it has the financial ability to consummate its proposed transaction within the timeframe contemplated for consummation of the Stalking Horse Agreement;

- k. it (in combination with any other bids for some or all of such assets) provides for a cash purchase price that exceeds the aggregate cash consideration to be paid to or for the benefit of the Sellers' estates set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement by at least $2,422,500, which represents the sum of: (i) the Break-Up Fee of $672,500, plus (ii) the maximum amount of the Expense Reimbursement of $750,000, plus (iii) an overbid of $1,000,000, and otherwise has a value to the Sellers, in their exercise of their reasonable business judgment, after consultation with their advisors, that is greater or otherwise better than the value offered under the Stalking Horse Agreement (including taking into account the impact of any liabilities assumed in the Stalking Horse Agreement);
- l. it identifies with particularity which executory contracts and unexpired leases the Qualified Bidder wishes to assume and provides details of the Qualified Bidder's proposal for the treatment of related Cure Costs (as defined in the Bidding Procedures Order), and contains sufficient information concerning the Qualified Bidder's ability to provide adequate assurance of performance with respect to executory contracts and unexpired leases to be assumed and assigned;
- m. it includes an express acknowledgement and representation that the Qualified Bidder: (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all required due diligence regarding acquiring the Purchased Assets prior to making its offer; (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Purchased Assets in making its bid; (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express or implied (by operation of law or otherwise), regarding the Purchased Assets or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith or with the Auction, except as expressly stated in the Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement; and (iv) is not entitled to any expense reimbursement, break-up fee, termination fee, or similar type of payment in connection with its bid;
- n. it includes evidence, in form and substance satisfactory to the Sellers, of authorization and approval from the Qualified Bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) or, if required, the equity holders of the Qualified Bidder, with respect to the submission, execution, delivery, performance and closing of the Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement;

- o. it provides an irrevocable undertaking by the Qualified Bidder to execute and deliver to the Sellers such other guarantee of performance or assurance acceptable to the Sellers in their discretion;
- p. it states that the Qualified Bidder consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court, as applicable;
- q. it contains such other information reasonably requested by the Sellers;
- r. it contains written confirmation that the bidder has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the bidding or the sale process; and
- s. it is received by the applicable Notice Parties (as defined in, and in accordance with, Section B.5) on or prior to 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on March 29, 2019 (the “Bid Deadline”).

Non-Conforming Bids. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bidding Procedures, the Sellers in consultation with the Consultation Parties (as defined below), shall have the right to entertain any bid that does not conform to one or more of the requirements herein and deem such bid a Qualified Bid (a “Non-Conforming Bid”); provided, however, that such Non-Conforming Bid so entertained by the Sellers must nevertheless meet each of the following requirements: (a) the Stalking Horse Bidder is provided the right to modify its Stalking Horse Bid to also revise its bid to provide similar non-conforming requirements; (b) the Good Faith Deposit must be made in the amount specified above; (c) the bid must meet the minimum overbid requirements set forth in Section B.4(k) above; (d) any Subsequent Bid (as defined below) must meet the requirements set forth in Section B.8(g) below; and (e) any condition to closing set forth in the applicable Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement cannot be more onerous (in any material respect) to the Sellers than any similar conditions set forth Stalking Horse Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything in these Bidding Procedures to the contrary, the Buyer is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder with respect to the Purchased Assets and the Stalking Horse Bid is deemed to be a Qualified Bid for all purposes in connection with the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, and the Sale, and the Stalking Horse Bidder shall not be required to take any further action in order to attend and participate in the Auction (if any) or, if the Stalking Horse Bidder is the Successful Bidder, to be named the Successful Bidder at the Sale Hearing.

The Sellers shall promptly notify each Qualified Bidder in writing (including via email) as to whether or not its bid constitutes a Qualified Bid. If any bid is determined by the Sellers not to be a Qualified Bid, the Debtors will refund such bidder’s Good Faith Deposit and all accumulated interest thereon within ten (10) business days after the Bid Deadline. The Sellers shall also notify the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders in writing (including via email) as to whether or not any bids constitute Qualified Bids no later than one (1) business day after the notification to any Qualified Bidder that its bid constitutes a Qualified Bid and provide a copy of Qualified Bids (excluding the Stalking Horse Agreement) to the Stalking Horse Bidder. The notices described in this paragraph shall not be given later than one (1) business day following the expiration of the Bid Deadline.

Consultation Parties. The “Consultation Parties” are (a) the DIP Agent and its counsel and advisors with respect to the Purchased Assets, and (b) counsel and any other retained advisors to the creditors’ committee appointed in the Sellers’ bankruptcy cases. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Sellers shall not be required to consult with any Consultation Party during the bidding and Auction process to the extent such Consultation Party is a Potential Bidder, a Qualified Bidder, or a financing source for a bidder, including, if the Sellers determine, in their reasonable business judgment, that consulting with such Consultation Party regarding any issue, selection or determination would be likely to have a chilling effect on potential bidding or otherwise be contrary to goal of maximizing value for the Sellers’ estates from the sale process.

Subject to the terms of any orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court, after consultation with the Consultation Parties, the Sellers shall have the right and obligation to make all decisions regarding bids and the Auction as provided herein as the Sellers determine to be in the best interest of their estates, whether or not the Consultation Parties agree with that decision.

5. Submission of Bids

A Qualified Bidder that desires to make a bid regarding some or all of the Purchased Assets must deliver written copies of its bid, so as to be received on or before the Bid Deadline, to each of the following parties (the “Notice Parties”):

- a. counsel to the Sellers: Lowenstein Sandler LLP, 1251 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020 (Attn: Steven E. Siesser, Esq. (ssiesser@lowenstein.com), Paul Kizel, Esq. (pkizel@lowenstein.com), Kenneth A. Rosen, Esq. (krosen@lowenstein.com), and Philip J. Gross, Esq. (pgross@lowenstein.com));
- b. counsel to the DIP Agent: McGuireWoods LLP, 1251 Avenue of the Americas, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10020-1104 (Attn: Kenneth Noble, Esq. (knoble@mcguirewoods.com) and Benjamin B. Iselin, Esq. (biselin@mcguirewoods.com)); and
- c. proposed counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, 180 Maiden Lane, New York, New York, 10038-4982 (Attn: Jayme T. Goldstein, Esq. (jgoldstein@stroock.com) and Erez E. Gilad, Esq. (egilad@stroock.com)).

6. Evaluation of Competing Bids

A Qualified Bid will be valued based upon several factors including, without limitation: (a) the amount of such bid (including value provided by the assumption of liabilities); (b) the risks and timing associated with consummating such bid; (c) any proposed revisions to the Stalking Horse Agreement (including any additional conditions to closing); and (d) any other factors deemed relevant by the Sellers.

7. No Qualified Bids

If the Sellers do not receive a Qualified Bid with respect to the Purchased Assets other than the Stalking Horse Bid, the Sellers will not hold an Auction (as defined below) and the Stalking Horse Bidder will be deemed the Successful Bidder upon the Bid Deadline with respect to the Purchased Assets.

8. Auction Process

If the Sellers receive one or more Qualified Bids with respect to the Purchased Assets in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid, the Sellers will conduct an auction (the “Auction”) for the Purchased Assets (which the Sellers intend to transcribe) at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on April 2, 2019, at the offices of Lowenstein Sandler LLP, 1251 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020, or such other location as shall be timely communicated by the Sellers to all entities entitled to attend the Auction. The Auction shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

- a. only the Sellers, the Notice Parties, the Stalking Horse Bidder, and any other Qualified Bidders, in each case along with their representatives and advisors, shall be entitled to attend the Auction (such attendance to be in person);
- b. only the Stalking Horse Bidder and such other Qualified Bidders will be entitled to participate as bidders in, or make any Subsequent Bids at, the Auction; provided that all such Qualified Bidders wishing to attend the Auction must have at least one individual representative with authority to bind such Qualified Bidder attending the Auction in person;
- c. each Qualified Bidder shall be required to confirm in a manner acceptable to the Sellers that it has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the bidding or the sale (including communicating with other Bidders during the Auction (concerning any aspect of the Auction or bidding) without the consent of the Debtors on the record of the Auction;
- d. at least one (1) business day prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder (other than a Stalking Horse Bidder) must inform the Sellers whether it intends to attend the Auction; provided that in the event a Qualified Bidder elects not to attend the Auction, such Qualified Bidder’s Qualified Bid shall, subject to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, nevertheless remain fully enforceable against such Qualified Bidder until (i) the date of the selection of the Successful Bidder at the conclusion of the Auction, or (ii) if selected as the Successful Bidder, four (4) months after the execution of the applicable Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement. No later than one business day prior to the start of the Auction, the Sellers will provide copies of the Qualified Bid (or combination of Qualified Bids, if applicable) which the Sellers believe, in their discretion, is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Purchased Assets (the “Starting Bid”) to the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders;

- e. all Qualified Bidders who have timely submitted Qualified Bids will be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids at the Auction and the actual identity of each Qualified Bidder will be disclosed on the record at the Auction;
- f. the Sellers, after consultation with their advisors, may employ and announce at the Auction additional procedural rules that are reasonable under the circumstances for conducting the Auction, provided that such rules: (i) are not inconsistent with these Bidding Procedures, title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in connection herewith or the Stalking Horse Agreement; (ii) provide that bids be made and received on an open basis, with all material terms of each bid to be fully disclosed to all other Qualified Bidders at the Auction; and (iii) are disclosed to each Qualified Bidder at the Auction;
- g. bidding at the Auction will begin with the Starting Bid and continue in bidding increments (each a “Subsequent Bid”) providing a net value to the Sellers’ estates of at least an additional $1,000,000 above the prior bid for the Purchased Assets. After the first round of bidding and between each subsequent round of bidding, the Sellers shall announce the bid (including the identity of the bidder or bidders and the value of such bid(s)) that they believe to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Purchased Assets (the “Highest Bid”). A round of bidding will conclude after each participating Qualified Bidder has had the opportunity, as determined by the Sellers, to submit a Subsequent Bid with full knowledge of the then Highest Bid. The failure of the Stalking Horse Bidder to bid in a particular round of bidding shall not preclude the applicable Stalking Horse Bidder from bidding in subsequent rounds, if any. For the purpose of evaluating the value of the consideration provided by the Subsequent Bids (including any Subsequent Bid by the Stalking Horse Bidder), the Sellers will give effect (on a dollar for dollar basis) to the Break-Up Fee and the maximum amount of the Expense Reimbursement payable to the Stalking Horse Bidder under the Stalking Horse Agreement as well as any additional liabilities to be assumed by a Qualified Bidder and any additional costs which may be imposed on the Sellers, as well as any other items of value included in such Subsequent Bid. If the Stalking Horse Bidder bids at the Auction, the Stalking Horse Bidder will be entitled to credit bid on a dollar for dollar basis the amount of the Break-Up Fee and the maximum amount of the Expense Reimbursement. To the extent a Subsequent Bid has been accepted entirely or in part because of the addition, deletion or modification of a provision or provisions in the applicable Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement or Stalking Horse Agreement, the Sellers will identify such added, deleted or modified provision or provisions and the Qualified Bidders shall be given the opportunity to modify the applicable Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement or Stalking Horse Agreement in a manner that materially provides any additional value that factored into selecting a Subsequent Bid from another Qualified Bidder. The Sellers shall, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, determine whether an addition, deletion or modification of the applicable Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement or Stalking Horse Agreement meets the standard of materially providing additional value. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be entitled to submit additional bids and make modifications to the Stalking Horse Agreement at the Auction consistent with these Bidding Procedures;

- h. No participant (including but not limited to any counterparty to an executory contract or unexpired lease) during the Auction may lodge any objection during the Auction to the proposed Sale or the assumption/assignment of an executory contract or unexpired lease; objections to the Sale or any assumption/assignment of any executory contract or unexpired lease shall only be preserved if filed as a Sale Objection, Cure Costs Objection or Assignment Objection (as the case may be) by the deadlines set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order;
- i. the Sellers shall, in their reasonable discretion and after consultation with the Consultation Parties, honor reasonable requests for breaks in the auction; and
- j. the Auction may be adjourned as the Sellers, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, deem appropriate. Reasonable notice of such adjournment and the time and place for the resumption of the Auction shall be given to the Stalking Horse Bidder, all other Qualified Bidders, the United States Trustee and the Consultation Parties.

9. Selection of Successful Bid

Prior to the conclusion of the Auction, the Sellers, in consultation with their advisors and the Consultation Parties, will review and evaluate each Qualified Bid in accordance with the procedures set forth herein and determine which offer for the Purchased Assets is the highest or otherwise best offer from among the Qualified Bidders (including the Stalking Horse Bidder) submitted at or prior to the Auction by a Qualified Bidder (such bid, the "Successful Bid" and the bidder making such bid, the "Successful Bidder") and communicate to the Stalking Horse Bidder and the other Qualified Bidders the identity of the Successful Bidder and the material terms of the Successful Bid. Upon identification of the Successful Bid at the conclusion of the Auction, the Sellers may not solicit, encourage or accept any additional bids, except if, following consultation with their legal and financial advisors, the Sellers determine that rejecting an additional unsolicited bid submitted after the conclusion of the Auction would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties. The determination of the Successful Bid by the Sellers at the conclusion of the Auction shall be final, subject only to approval by the Bankruptcy Court.

By submitting a Qualified Bid, all Qualified Bidders and the Stalking Horse Bidder expressly agree that they shall not submit additional bids or seek to reopen the Auction after the Sellers have selected the Successful Bid and Back-Up Bid, if any, and any such bid shall not be considered by the Sellers or the Bankruptcy Court. As soon as reasonably practicable after conclusion of the Auction, the Successful Bidder shall complete and execute all agreements, contracts, instruments and other documents evidencing and containing the terms and conditions upon which the Successful Bid was made. Within one (1) business day after conclusion of the Auction, the Sellers shall file a notice identifying the Successful Bidder with the Bankruptcy Court.

The Sellers will sell the Purchased Assets to the Successful Bidder pursuant to the terms of the Successful Bid upon the approval of such Successful Bid by the Bankruptcy Court.

10. Designation of Back-Up Bidder

Notwithstanding anything in these Bidding Procedures to the contrary, if an Auction is conducted, the Qualified Bidder with the next highest or otherwise best bid at the conclusion of the Auction for the Purchased Assets, as determined by the Sellers, in the exercise of their business judgment, shall be deemed to have submitted the next highest or otherwise best bid for such assets (such bid, a “Back-Up Bid” and the Qualified Bidder submitting such bid, a “Back-Up Bidder”) and shall be announced at the time to all Qualified Bidders participating in the Auction.

If for any reason the Successful Bidder fails to consummate its Successful Bid within the time permitted after the entry of the Sale Order, then the Sellers may deem the Back-Up Bidder to be the new Successful Bidder and its Back-Up Bid to be the new Successful Bid, and the Sellers will be authorized (but not directed), without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, to consummate a sale transaction with such Back-Up Bidder on the terms of its Back-Up Bid; provided, that if the Sellers elect to do so, the Sellers, within their discretion, (i) will file a written notice of such transaction with the Bankruptcy Court at least 24 hours in advance of consummation thereof, and/or (ii) may (but shall not be required to) seek approval for the consummation of such sale transaction with such Back-Up Bidder pursuant to a separate order to be submitted at a later date consistent with the terms of the Back-Up Bid.

Each Back-Up Bid must remain open until four (4) months after execution of the applicable Stalking Horse Agreement or Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Outside Back-Up Date”), except in the event the Stalking Horse Bidder is designated as the Back-Up Bidder in which case the Stalking Horse Bidder shall not be permitted to terminate the Stalking Horse Agreement until the earlier of (a) the date upon which an Alternative Transaction has been consummated following approval by the Bankruptcy Court, or (b) May 31, 2019 (as such date may be extended pursuant to Section 8.1(b) of the Stalking Horse Agreement).

11. Good Faith Deposit

Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph with respect to the Successful Bid and Back-Up Bid, if any, the Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders that submitted such a deposit under the Bidding Procedures shall be returned upon or within three (3) business days after the Auction. The Good Faith Deposit of a Successful Bidder shall be held until the closing of the sale of the Purchased Assets and applied in accordance with the Successful Bid. The Good Faith Deposit of any Back-Up Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) shall be returned within three (3) business days after the Outside Back-Up Date. If the Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, the Sellers will not have any obligation to return the Good Faith Deposit deposited by such Successful Bidder, which may be retained by the Sellers as liquidated damages, in addition to any and all rights, remedies and/or causes of action that may be available to the Sellers at law or in equity, and, the Sellers shall be free to consummate the proposed transaction at the next highest or otherwise best bid at the Auction by a Qualified Bidder, without the need for an additional hearing or order of the Bankruptcy Court. Notwithstanding any provision hereof, the terms pertaining to any Good Faith Deposit submitted by the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement (including, without limitation, the entitlements of the Stalking Horse Bidder and Sellers to such Good Faith Deposit and the timing of return of any Good Faith Deposit to the Stalking Horse Bidder) shall be governed by the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order.

12. Sale Is As Is/Where Is

Except as otherwise provided in the Stalking Horse Agreement, any Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement, the Successful Bid or any order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the sale of the Purchased Assets, the Purchased Assets sold pursuant to these Bidding Procedures shall be conveyed at the closing of the sale in their then-present condition, “AS IS, WITH ALL FAULTS, AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED.”

C. THE BID PROTECTIONS

In recognition of the expenditure of time, energy, and resources, and because the agreement to make payment thereof is necessary to preserve the value of each of the Sellers’ estates, the Sellers have agreed that, among other triggering events, if the Buyer is not the Successful Bidder, then the Sellers will pay the Buyer, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, (a) an aggregate “break-up” fee of $672,500, as more fully described in the Stalking Horse Agreement (as defined therein, the “Break-Up Fee”), and (b) an amount in cash equal to the Expense Reimbursement (as such term is defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement (the “Expense Reimbursement”), which is not to exceed $750,000. The Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement shall be payable as provided for pursuant to the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement, and nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or otherwise modify the terms thereof, including other circumstances pursuant to which the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement may be payable.

Except for the Stalking Horse Bidder, no Qualified Bidder or other party submitting a bid shall be entitled to any expense reimbursement, breakup fee, termination or similar fee or payment.

D. SALE HEARING

The Sellers will seek entry of an order from the Bankruptcy Court, at a hearing (the “Sale Hearing”) to begin at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on April 4, 2019 or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, to approve and authorize the sale to the Successful Bidder (including, without limitation, the assumption and assignment to the Successful Bidder of any executory contracts or unexpired leases to be assigned to the Successful Bidder in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement or Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement, as applicable, at the Sale Hearing on terms and conditions determined in accordance with the Bidding Procedures).

E. MISCELLANEOUS

The Auction and the Bidding Procedures are solely for the benefit of the Sellers and the Stalking Horse Bidder, and nothing contained in the Bidding Procedures Order, the Bidding Procedures or the Stalking Horse Agreement shall create any rights in any other person or bidder (including, without limitation, rights as third-party beneficiaries or otherwise) other than the rights expressly granted to the Successful Bidder under the Bidding Procedures Order.

Without prejudice to the rights of the Stalking Horse Bidder under the terms of the Stalking Horse Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order, the Sellers may modify the rules, procedures and deadlines set forth herein, or adopt new rules, procedures and deadlines that, in their reasonable discretion, will better promote the goals of these Bidding Procedures (namely, to maximize value for the estates); provided, however, that the Sellers may not modify the Bid Protections afforded to the Stalking Horse Bidder in accordance with the Stalking Horse Agreement, unless agreed in writing by the Stalking Horse Bidder and Sellers. For the avoidance of doubt, the Sellers may not modify the rules, procedures, or deadlines set forth herein, or adopt new rules, procedures, or deadlines that would impair in any material respect the Stalking Horse Bidder's right to payment of the Break-Up Fee or the Expense Reimbursement without the express written consent of the Stalking Horse Bidder. All such modifications and additional rules will be communicated to each of the Notice Parties, Potential Bidders, and Qualified Bidders (including the Stalking Horse Bidder) or announced at the Auction.

The Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or relating to implementation of the Bidding Procedures Order.
